QPS DISTRICT LIBRARY SERVICES WEBSITE

Heather Colombo, QPS District Librarian, presented information at the May 20th Board meeting on a district library services website she has created which is available to all students, staff and parents. The site provides links to a wide range of on-line resources. Students and teachers with a log-in have access to all of the resources available through the district. A small grant was used to begin purchasing eBooks. Each elementary school received $300 worth of eBooks and an additional 70 fiction titles have been added for the schools to share. There is a section of the website to facilitate education searches. Parents and students can log on at home for research or help with homework. Parents who want to help their children can learn along with them from sites devoted only to appropriate curriculum information. Students can be directed by their teachers to go to certain subject areas for research. She is working with staff at each school on how to use the new system. Heather said that Madison School students will be tracked this summer to gather data on how many kids are using the eBooks. The website can be accessed through the library section on the district's website, www.qps.org or at www.qpslibrary.weebly.com.
